

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Shared His Horse and Saddle.
A. Miller, of Rutter, the night of December 28, at his ranch near Rutter, heard a noise about his barn at 1 o'clock at night and stepped out. Seeing a man in his door, he called to him to know what he wanted, when the answer was that he wanted a pistol shot, the man in the door casing only a look at the man in the door, he ran taking down his rifle he ran into the yard and fired several shots at his horse thief visitor, one of which struck the horse in the neck about a distance from his house. The morning following the shooting, Miller found his saddle and his horse, and it had on a new bridle, all the property of Miller.—Canyon City Eagle.

Wallows Pioneer Gone.
Last Thursday, November 30, Mrs. Elizabeth Hayden, aged 81 years, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Rinehart of Oregon.

Hayden was one of the pioneers of this county and state, having settled with her husband and family in the Grand Ronde valley in early days. Although quite old, Hayden enjoyed excellent health until a short time before her death, she suffered a stroke of paralysis and three daughters, Mrs. Hayden, Imma, Ore.; Mrs. Mrs. Fleet, Flora, Ore.; B. T. and Hayden of New Mexico; Mrs. Rinehart of Leap, and Miss Lillian Hayden of Imma, Ore.—Wallows.

Chain Jumping in Gilliam.
In the Ajax neighborhood, in Gilliam county, there's an excitement over homestead cases. J. B. Goll, who has just returned from that section, having gone to do some surveying, and John Goll, who is attorney for the company, say it was dangerous to be there; that homesteaders were prepared to defend their claims with Western style and all went to court cases will begin today at the local land office.—Wallows Chronicle.

Bought His Own Horse.
O. Bucknum, a well known minister of Sumpter, had the unique experience Tuesday of buying a horse from him four years ago. He raised the animal from Dr. A. C. Gibbs, a dentist, the animal having changed hands several times since. Mr. Bucknum did not discover the coincidence until he examined the horse more thoroughly after the deal was completed. It is not thought that it will be possible to locate the culprit.—Baker City Democrat.

New The Dalles Waterworks.
With the payment of $2558.58, ordered by the water commission at their meeting Wednesday, the full amount has been paid Robert Wakefield, contractor for the improvement of the city water works, save $500, which will be held as guarantee for 30 days. The contract called for $58,563.81; but with extra work and equipment not specified in the original contract, the price was augmented to $63,113.36.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Artesian Well Near Hot Lake.
Messrs. Grant Cady and Fred Scott are now engaged in sinking an artesian well for W. J. Townsend, about one mile east of Hot Lake. They are now down 100 feet and are prepared to go 1100 feet if they do not secure a flow before reaching that depth. Mr. Townsend last year sank a well down about 350 feet, but changed to another location where the indications seem to be more favorable.—La Grande Observer.

Continued cattle shipments from Baker and Harney counties are diminishing the herds and while the prices realized are not up to the standard of other years, growers are doing better than to hold. With their surplus of hay going at good prices, their bank accounts are far from being depleted.—Baker City Democrat.

Telephone Extension.
Reconstruction of the telephone line between John Day and Dayville has placed it in direct communication with local and long distance systems. All private phones have been taken out and replaced by the regulation Bell receivers. Patrons on all the regular line can talk direct with Dayville points.—John Day News.

New Building at Canyon City.
The Canyon City Commercial company purchased the lot of Jack Chambers formerly occupied by the City Hotel. On this ground a new corrugated iron building will be erected at once, the size of which will be 48x65. Teams have been put to work clearing away for the foundation.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Beaten and Robbed.
A little before 6 o'clock this evening, after making a desperate and almost successful resistance, Thomas Gibbons, a ranch hand from Asotin creek, was brutally beaten and robbed of $181 while going from Clarkston to Lewiston.—Lewiston Tribune.

"A LITTLE OUTCAST."

Famous Problem Play of New York Life at the Frazer Wednesday Night.
"A Little Outcast," which comes to the Frazer on December 7, was written for men and women who realize the evil in the world and what this modern complex civilization of ours loses by its insane worship of the good, of "getting on" worship of wrong doing, of false friends and fear of the world's censure, such a story is written around the lives of Paul Weston and George De Voe, in "A Little Outcast," and it might be the story of any two men in ordinary life. It is on the lines of human interest that "A Little Outcast" forges ahead of its competitors.

The story is one of New York City life with all its varying changes from exclusive mansions of the great to the squalid hovels of crime and serves to present some striking stage pictures.

Prominent among them are views of a fashionable Fifth avenue mansion with its white and gold drawing rooms, and smart boudoirs, Cooper Union, Five Points, the famous Chinese restaurant in Pell street, for the hop fiends, a panoramic view of the Battery at night, the great duel in the water off the government pier and the thrilling rescue by the police in an electric launch.

HAVERLY'S MINSTRELS.

High-Class Artists Coming Next Thursday, December 8.
W. E. Nankeville will present Haverly's minstrels at the Frazer on Thursday, December 8, and judging from the enthusiasm thus far aroused this splendid organization will be greeted by a packed house.

This season's company, which numbers nearly half a hundred, is composed exclusively of artists, and includes the famous star comique, Billy Van, surnamed "the assassin of sorrow," who will present a new bunch of stories and a few of his newest song hits. Another star is "Beau Brummell" Jimmy Wall, a comedy expert and songster with modern methods.

Mr. Wall is classed as one of the most magnetic entertainers in minstrelsy. A special feature and a most costly one, is the act of Clayton, Jenkins & Jasper, fresh from their foreign triumphs. They will present the famous "Darktown Circus," their first American appearance in seven years.

The Young brothers will also be seen in a comic acrobatic novelty, "Quickwork in Chinatown," and Maxler & Conley will present their new budget of comic songs and rapid-fire talk.

Diphtheria quarantines were raised December 3 from two residences in La Grande, and that place is now entirely free from all contagious diseases.
